Dear Members and Friends of the LGBT Community,

The Pikes Peak Gay and Lesbian Community Center is partnering with the Pikes Peak Lavender Film Festival to let you know about this wonderful community event, our very own LGBT film festival in Colorado Springs. Both the Community Center and the Film Festival are non-profit (501 (C) (3)) organizations.

We are offering the early bird special — a Full Festival Pass — for only $60 (a savings of $15) to anyone who receives this letter. To receive this discount, purchase passes by August 30, 2004, either by mail using the attached form, or take this letter to any one of our ticket outlets listed below in the next to last paragraph.

The Pikes Peak Lavender Film Festival screens the very best international line-up of gay, lesbian, bisexual, and transgender films. If you've never attended this event, which is now in its 5th year, you will be pleasantly surprised at the quality of the films and the way the festival brings together our LGBT community with our friends.

We offer a wide array of award-winning short and feature films. In response to audience suggestions last year, we've included more comedies this year to lift our spirits. Opening Night is Friday, September 17, 2004. The festival runs through Sunday, September 19, with a total of 9 features and 9 shorts. We have an Opening Night reception and parties both Saturday and Sunday nights. Your full festival pass includes all films and parties. See the enclosed brochure for more about this year's selection of films. This is our best year ever!

In addition to the Full-Festival Pass, we offer a variety of passes to help you enjoy what you want to see and to accommodate your schedule. We offer an Opening Night Pass (Reception and Films – $25), a Half-Festival Pass (Opening Night and any four films Sat. and/or Sun. – $50), and a Four-Film Pass (any 4 shorts and features Sat. and/or Sun. – $35), all of which you can order in advance. Tickets for individual films will be available at the Fine Arts Center Box Office after Labor Day. We hope you take advantage of the early bird special now being offered to you. This year our films come from the United States, Canada, France, Holland, Ireland, Italy, Japan, Spain and South Africa. Spending the weekend right here in Colorado Springs at our film festival will seem almost like a trip around the world.

While this discounted full festival pass must be purchased by mail or at a ticket outlet by August 31, other pass options may be purchased in advance, online at our website: www.pplff.org or, at any of our Festival Pass Outlets: Wag N' Wash—open 7 days a week (1625 W. Uintah), Spice of Life (727 Manitou Av), Toons – open 4pm -10pm (802 N. Nevada), KRCC (912 N. Weber St.) and the Pikes Peak Gay and Lesbian Community Center-open 2pm-6pm (916 1/2 N. Tejon.)

This film festival needs your participation and support to continue in Colorado Springs. When you purchase a Full Festival Pass for $60, you'll help the festival and have a great time. See you at the Pikes Peak Lavender Film Festival, September 17th!!!!

Sincerely,

Pikes Peak Lavender Film Festival Committee 2004: Arnelle Alston, Robert Armintor, Alma Cremonesi, Bill Crissman, Marilyn Davis, Tim Fotinos, Joe Jenkins, Jerry Morris, Jonelle Neighbor, Marty Pebler, Jeff Stachel, Bob Steinborn, Eric Verlo, Marie Walden, and Bev Wasil.
